EAA Vintage Chapter 37, Aug, 2017

President's Corner

Sebastian Baumgardner

I hope everyone had the chance to make it to AirVenture this year. It was an amazing convention. I'm curious to hear the stats. The campground was the fullest I've personally ever seen it. I also noticed it seemed people stayed longer as opposed to leaving midweek.

The airplanes this year were pretty spectacular. It was bombers everywhere! We will have AirVenture recap during this month's meeting. Please bring your favorite AirVenture story or experience to share.

Thanks to Craig Bartscht for organizing our VAA37 Poker Run on June 24th. We had the good fortune of excellent weather and a good turnout!

I would like to remind everyone that on August 26th we will resume our fly-in /drive-in breakfast and also have a young eagles rally. It will be a busy day and we will need lots of support.

See you at the Hangar for our chapter meeting, 7PM, Wednesday, 8/23. ~ Sebastian

Poker Run!!

Craig Bartscht

On Saturday, June 24, we held our second annual poker run in conjunction with our monthly pancake breakfast. All were well fed and entertained!

Seven aircraft participated and a total of thirteen hands were dealt. A few good hands turned up including Suzie Williams with a natural straight from her five cards drawn, but Steve Woodrum siezed the day with a full house produced from an extra card drawn.

The pot was $150 plus the $10 returned to the pilot of the aircraft flying the winning hand. Congratulations, Steve!

Thanks to all who participated, to those who took the time to deal cards at the outposts, and to Century Aviation and the county for making the fun as seamless as possible despite the resurfacing project.

Young Eagles

David and Laramie Resler

We have been blessed with good weather so far this year and have been able to fly at all of our scheduled rallies this year.

The final Young Eagle Rally at GWB for 2017 is scheduled for August 26. We are hoping for good weather that day too!

If you can help at this rally, let us know by email to lresler@brotherhoodmutual.com or text to 260-402-3478 (please include your name in the text).

Thanks for your Support!
