EAA Vintage Chapter 37, Jan 2019

President's Corner

Craig Bartscht

As we celebrate the new year and start the final race to the ADS-B out deadline, it's worthwhile to pause in anticipation of the flying year ahead. Your officers just completed our calendar for the year and even the barebones version assures we will be a busy bunch. As the year progresses, much will be added to it and we'll soon start wondering if we can get it all done.

Toward the end of this month we will have the first meeting of our scholarship committee in an effort to develop a policy toward the distribution of monies to chapter members seeking ratings and certificates. In addition, we are going to start movie nights again on a trial basis starting with Friday, February 1 at 7PM. We're going to shoot for a double header date night starting with "It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World" followed by "Rat Race," an updated parody of "Mad Mad World" where you'll discover you shoulda bought a squirrel. As always, the popcorn is fresh and hot!

Also, be aware that this year's annual banquet will be held March 9 at Rack and Helen's in New Haven, not St. James in Avilla. The service will be buffet style and the cost will be $25. An open bar is available for cocktails at 6PM with dinner at 7PM. There is an elevator toward the back of the building for anyone requiring assistance to the 2nd floor.

All in all, a good start for the year. Now if we can just get the weather to cooperate.

See you at the chapter meeting, Wednesday, January 23 at 19:00,

Craig

Young Eagles Update!

Three years ago EAA announced that all Young Eagle pilots and some ground personnel needed to complete their Youth Protection Policy and Protection training. Many of us completed this in early 2016 and it was good for three years.

EAA should send you a reminder email that your expiration date is approaching. You can either wait until your expiration date to complete the training or complete it when you receive your email.

If you do it prior to your expiration date, it will reset your expiration date to three years from the date completed. It will not use your original expiration date.

VAA 37 Young Eagle rally dates at GWB VAA 37 Hangar are

- May 4, 9-1
- Jun 15, 9-1
- Aug 24, 9-1

Be sure to check our website at VAA37.org for all Young Eagle rally dates.

Thanks for all your support in the past years and we hope to see you in this new year!

Smooth Air!!
