EAA Vintage Chapter 37, Aug 2019

President's Corner

Craig Bartscht

With another record year in the books for AirVenture 2019, we cruise into the last half of the year. As we catch our breath we need to thank Andy Hershman for stepping up as our Tour Stop Chair for the Ford visit on Sunday, September 1.

We will still need at least six brave souls to assist Andy on Sunday, Sept 1, at our ramp at our hangar, crewing the Tri-Motor stop. The shifts will be three from 08:00 to 12:00 and three from 12:00 to 17:30. I know that it's Labor Day weekend and ACD Festival week but we have only ourselves to rely on for support. Whoever steps up will have plenty of help from folks who have done this before. The ads and other arrangements have already been made so we only need to provide the on-site support when the aircraft arrives. Training, as required, will be provided on site.

If you're busy that entire weekend, we can still use your help in the distribution of posters to local merchants where you live. Posters 8½ X 11 and 11 X 17 are available at Century Aviation for distribution. Just check at the front desk.

In another vein, your chapter officers took an opportunity on short notice to host crew members of the Collings Foundation on Tuesday, August 6, during their visit to GWB. Although they are competitors to our B-17, this is a very small community and it doesn't hurt to extend an olive branch now and then. We fed them at the end of a busy workday and a chapter wide meet & greet would have been inappropriate. Eight of their fifteen or so crew elected to enjoy our hospitality and we made some new friends.

Don't forget we will be having our monthly breakfast along with a Young Eagles event this Saturday the 24th, so it will be all hands on deck. Also, our regular chapter meeting will be the following Wednesday, the 28th. Drew will be standing in for me as Geoff and I will be out on the B-17.

Young Eagles Update!

Laramie Resler

Our 2019 YE season at GWB is winding down. We have rallies on August 24, September 14, and Sunday, September 15.

The September 15 rally is in conjunction with the GWB open house Airport Festival. We will be flying from 11:00 to 3:00 instead of in the morning.

On September 21, we will be hosting a rally at the C62 (Kendallville) open house.

I've sent invitations to our pilots for those dates and have received confirmation that some of you will be there. For those who have not confirmed, go to YEday.org, sign in and either confirm or cancel so I know who will be flying. For ground support, let me know whether or not you can help at any of these rallies, please send me an email at (lresler@brotherhoodmutual.com) or text me at 260-402-3478.
