EAA Vintage Chapter 37, February 2020

President's Corner

Andrew Hershman

What would you say is the most important part of our chapter and organization? I would argue it is our many members who make the success of our events and goals possible. As diverse as we all may be we are joined to common interests and purpose. Keeping the classics in the air, introducing these joys to the next generation, and enjoying the friendships made along the way. It most certainly is a never ending task. Whether you help at the Saturday morning breakfasts, Young Eagle events, our chapter home and hangar, at Oshkosh or chapter obligations to our Airport community your contributions do not go unnoticed.

I would like to challenge our members this year to make a renewed effort in exercising that common shared interest. Participation in our scheduled chapter events is always welcome to willing hands. It goes without saying that we all live with commitments we must make elsewhere and that is to be expected. Maybe you have something else you would like to help with or participate in? Let's hear it! I will always maintain an open door to new ideas. I would also like to encourage members with a vintage/Classic/Contemporary aircraft to consider a short presentation on respective aircraft and history at a chapter meeting. I will include myself in the younger group that has little experience, but great interest in these wonderful aircraft.

Thank you for all your hard work and participation. It is said volunteers don't always have time, but they have heart.

Clear skies ahead!
